JURISDICTION

- 3. Jurisdiction in this Court is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 42 U.S.C. § 12188.
- 4. Plaintiff's claims asserted herein arose in this judicial district and Defendant does substantial business in this judicial district.
- 5. Venue in this judicial district is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) in that this is the judicial district in which a substantial part of the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims occurred.
- Pursuant to Arroyo v. Rosas, supplemental jurisdiction is appropriate over Plaintiff's Unruh claim. On a case-specific analysis, there are no compelling reasons to decline jurisdiction.

ALLEGATIONS

- 7. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant's hotel does not have a compliant access aisle at the passenger loading zone adjacent to the hotel lobby in violation of Sections 209 and 503 of the 2010 Standards. An access aisle has specific requirements to be compliant with the Standards: It must be (1) 60 inches wide and at least 20 feet long, (2) it must have an accessible route adjoining it, and (3) it cannot be within a vehicular way. Section 503.3.
- 8. The requirement for an access aisle at a passenger loading zone is immensely important for a person in a wheelchair such as Plaintiff, as it provides safe access to the entry of the hotel and deters others from placing encumbrances or obstacles there such as a vehicle parking. An access aisle is akin to a cross-walk for pedestrians. Absence of an access aisle where required creates dangerous conditions for a person in a wheelchair such as Plaintiff.
- 9. Plaintiff formerly worked in the hospitality industry. She is an avid traveler across California for purposes of leisure travel and to "test" whether various hotels comply with disability access laws, doing so at least once per month. Testing is encouraged by the Ninth Circuit.

- 10. In late April 2024, Plaintiff personally visited Defendant's hotel, which has a passenger loading zone. Defendant's hotel has a passenger loading zone because pickup and dropoff occurs there and it is located directly outside of the lobby entrance. There are also design features showing an intent for utilization as a passenger loading zone. According to the U.S. Access Board Technical Guidelines on Passenger Loading Zones, "many hotel entrances" have the design features indicating an intent to utilize as PLZs.
- 11. While at Defendant's hotel, she discovered that Defendant's hotel has a barrier to entry to the lobby, which is that the passenger loading zone does not have an access aisle compliant with Section 503.3. It is an absolute requirement to have an access aisle at a passenger loading zone pursuant to Sections 209 and 503. The requirement of an access aisle at a passenger loading zone relates to Plaintiff's disability of not having one leg and being forced to use a wheelchair because access aisles are required so persons in a wheelchair can maneuver without threat of danger from other vehicles and without other encumbrances obstructing their pathway. The lobby, therefore, is inaccessible to Plaintiff by way of the passenger loading zone because there is no access aisle.
- 12. Plaintiff gained actual and personal knowledge of a barrier while visiting Defendant's hotel (no access aisle at passenger loading zone), and as a result, she was deterred from entering the hotel both from the barrier and due to the lack of equality.
- 13. Plaintiff has certain plans of returning and staying at the Hotel in October 2024 during one of her many trips across California and especially the Los Angeles and Orange County areas, but if she arrives then and Defendant has not remediated, she will remain deterred and will not enter the Hotel.
- 14. It is readily achievable and inexpensive to modify the hotel to provide an access aisle, which involves painting and measuring tools.
- 15. Without injunctive relief, Plaintiff and others will continue to be unable to independently use Defendant's hotel in violation of her rights under the ADA.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

- 16. Plaintiff incorporates all allegations heretofore set forth.
- 17. Defendant has discriminated against Plaintiff and others in that it has failed to make its public lodging services fully accessible to, and independently usable by, individuals who are disabled in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a) and § 121282(b)(2)(iv) and the 2010 Standards, as described above.
- 18. Defendant has discriminated against Plaintiff in that it has failed to remove architectural barriers to make its lodging services fully accessible to, and independently usable by individuals who are disabled in violation of 42 U.S.C. §12182(b)(A)(iv) and the 2010 Standards, as described above. Compliance with the 2010 Standards would neither fundamentally alter the nature of Defendant's lodging services nor result in an undue burden to Defendant.
- 19. In violation of the 2010 Standards, Defendant's hotel passenger loading zone does not have a disability access aisle compliant with Section 503.3 of the Standards.
- 20. Compliance with 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv) and the 2010 Standards, as described above, is readily achievable by the Defendant. Id. Readily achievable means that providing access is easily accomplishable without significant difficulty or expense.
- 21. Defendant's conduct is ongoing, and Plaintiff invokes her statutory right to declaratory and injunctive relief, as well as costs and attorneys' fees.
- 22. Without the requested injunctive relief, Defendant's non-compliance with the ADA's requirements that its passenger loading zone be fully accessible to, and independently useable by, disabled people is likely to recur.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant as follows:

a. DECLARATORY Judgment that at the commencement of this action Defendant was in violation of the specific requirements of Title III of the ADA described above, and the relevant implementing regulations of the ADA;

d. Damages in the amount of $4,000.00; and

e. Provision of whatever other relief the Court deems just, equitable and appropriate. DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL Plaintiff hereby demands a jury trial on issues triable by a jury. RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 2d day of May, 2024. /s/ P. Kristofer Strojnik P. Kristofer Strojnik (242728) Attorneys for Plaintiff VERIFICATION I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. DATED this 2d day of May, 2024. Theresa Marie Brooke
